Install inSync Client

This category is about...

- Install and activate the inSync Client
  - No image available

  This section contains information about how you can install and configure the inSync Client. It also contains information on how you can activate the inSync Client on your devices.

  ◦ Hardware and software prerequisites
  ◦ About the inSync account activation email
  ◦ Install the inSync Client
  ◦ Activate the inSync client on your first laptop
  ◦ Add a new laptop to your inSync account
  ◦ Replace a laptop linked with your inSync account
  ◦ Configure proxy settings during the inSync client activation
  ◦ List of inSync Client notifications
  ◦ Uninstall the inSync client
  ◦ Upgrade the inSync client

- Start the inSync client and access inSync Web
  - No image available

  This section contains information about how you can start the inSync client and access inSync Web. It also describes the interface for both the inSync client and inSync Web.

  ◦ Start the inSync client
  ◦ About the inSync client interface
  ◦ Access inSync Web
  ◦ About the inSync Web interface
• Configure the inSync client

This section contains information about how you can configure the inSync client.

- Manage folders for backup
- Show hidden folders or files
- View Global Exclusions list
- Include email clients for backup
- Update backup interval and system resources
- Control privacy of your backup data
- Configure proxy settings on the inSync client
- Update your inSync account password
- Reactivate the inSync client

Here are some interesting things about...